

The Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to Thailand paid a courtesy call on the President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives on the occasion of his assumption of duty

On 29 April 2020, H.E. Mr. Lee Wook-heon, the Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to Thailand, paid a courtesy call on H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives, on the occasion of his assumption as the Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to Thailand at the Parliament House. The President expressed appreciation to the Korean government for the success on holding general election in April, well-controlled of the COVID-19 wide spread in South Korea. The President also informed the ambassador to ask the Korean companies in Thailand to keep employing Thai workers during this hard time. The ambassador notified the employment and thanked the President for the letter conveying moral support to the Korean government to fight against the pandemic. They also exchanged views on the economic and social rehabilitation after the pandemic. The ambassador also invited the President to pay an official visit to the Republic of Korea at the appropriate time.

