

H.E. Ms. Evren Dagdelen Akgun, the Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to Thailand, paid a courtesy call on H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives

On 7 October 2020, at 15.00 hrs., H.E. Ms. Evren Dagdelen Akgun , the Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to Thailand, paid a courtesy call on H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The President of the National Assembly appreciated for the Ambassador's performance in organizing various activities to promote Thai-Turkish relations, which had long existed for more than 60 years, and enhanced further cooperation in various fields such as tourism, culture, defense, investment and also the COVID-19 pandemic information sharing which the Ambassador praised Thailand for the success of the pandemic control. Moreover, both sides expressed readiness to strengthen the relations through the bilateral and multilateral parliamentary mechanism by exchanging the visits between the two Members of Parliament and attending the international parliamentary forums. And due to the pandemic spread across the world resulting the postponement of the 100th Anniversary of the Foundation of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey, if the situation resumed to the normal, the President of the National Assembly would be pleased to attend the ceremony.

