

H.E. Mr. Mohammad Husain Alfailakawi, Ambassador of the State of Kuwait to Thailand, paid a courtesy call on H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

On 16 March 2021, at 14.00 hrs., H.E. Mr. Mohammad Husain Alfailakawi, Ambassador of the State of Kuwait to Thailand, paid a courtesy call on H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly and Speaker of the House of Representatives, on the occasion of his assumption of duty. Both Kuwait and Thailand maintained a good relationship with each other for a long time. This was the second time that both persons met with each other. On October 1st 2020, the President of the National Assembly had visited the Embassy of the State of Kuwait to sign a book of condolence following the passing of His Highness Sheikh Sabah al-Ahmed al-Sabah, the late Emir of the State of Kuwait. The Ambassador informed the President of the National Assembly that H.E. Mr. Marzouq Ali M. Al-Ghanim, President of the Parliament of Kuwait, would like to invite the President of the National Assembly to pay an official visit to Kuwait. The President of the National Assembly accepted the invitation and would pay the visit after the COVID-19 situation getting improved. During the conversation, the President of the National Assembly admired Kuwait for its outstanding democracy among the Middle East and also appreciated the Kuwait government for giving scholarships to the Thai students to study further in the field of Islam in Kuwait. They discussed if these kinds of scholarships could be changed to other fields such as economics, engineering or medicine which could be directly benefit to their hometown.
