พิธีเปิดการประชุม

นาย Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf ประธานรัฐสภาสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่าน ได้กล่าว
เปิดการประชุมคณะกรรมการว่าด้วยสังคมและวัฒนธรรมของสมาชิกรัฐสภาเอเชีย (APA) ผ่านวิดีโอ สรุปล
สาระสำคัญของถ้อยแถลงในการเปิดประชุมได้ ดังนี้ รัฐสภาอิหร่านรู้สึกเป็นเกียรติที่ได้เป็นเจ้าภาพจัดการ
ประชุมในครั้งนี้ หวังเป็นอย่างยิ่งว่าสถานการณ์ของโรคโควิด-๑๙ จะคลี่คลายลง และจะได้เข้าร่วมการประชุม
และพบปะหารือกัน ณ กรุงเตหะราน สาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่าน

นาย Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf
ประธานรัฐสภาสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่าน

ความร่วมมือและการประชุมหารือที่ดำเนินไปเป็นอย่างดีระหว่างสมาชิกรัฐสภาของ APA จะ
สนับสนุนการดำเนินงานด้านรัฐสภาให้ประสบความสำเร็จ และในฐานะประเทศซึ่งเป็นที่ตั้งของสำนักงาน
เลขาธิการ APA ความร่วมมือ การทำงานร่วมกัน และความเป็นน้ำหนึ่งใจเดียวกัน ได้ส่งเสริมความร่วมมือทั่วทั้ง
ทวีปเอเชียที่มีมาอย่างยาวนาน หวังว่าการมีส่วนร่วมอย่างแข็งขันและการมีโครงสร้างองค์กรอย่างเป็นระบบ
ในฐานะตัวแทนของรัฐสภาสมาชิก APA ซึ่งทวีปเอเชียมีประวัติศาสตร์ที่ทรงคุณค่าในวัตถุประสงค์วัฒนธรรม
ร่วมกันของรัฐสภาสมาชิก APA และกล่าวเน้นย้ำว่า พวกเราได้ออมรับความหลากหลายทางชาติพันธุ์ ศาสนา
และเชื้อชาติทั่วทั้งทวีปเอเชีย พร้อมทั้งเชื่อมั่นว่าในบริบทของการประชุมสังคมและวัฒนธรรม หน่วยพื้นฐานที่
สำคัญที่สุดของสังคม คือ ครอบครัว นอกจากนี้ การอนุรักษ์และส่งเสริมทางวัฒนธรรมในชุมชน แม้จะมีความ
แตกต่างในบางประการ แต่สังคมทั้งหมดอยู่ภายใต้อิทธิพลวัฒนธรรมหลักเดียวกัน และเป็นไปตามจารีต

ประเพณี หลักกฎหมายทั่วไป และหลักกฎหมายสากล อย่างไรก็ตาม การพัฒนาในทุกด้านทางเศรษฐกิจ การเมือง การศึกษา และสังคม ต้องการวัฒนธรรมอันหลากหลาย ซึ่งได้ตั้งอยู่บนคุณค่าของท้องถิ่นและระดับชาติ ผลจากมุมมองดังกล่าวในสังคมจะทำให้การเติบโตทางเศรษฐกิจและการพัฒนาเป็นไปอย่างยั่งยืน และสมดุล และเชื่อมั่นว่า ความหลากหลายทางวัฒนธรรมในเอเชีย จะส่งเสริมสถานะได้ก็ต่อเมื่อได้มีการรักษาเอกลักษณ์ของชาติและทวีปเอเชียร่วมกัน ดังนั้น เป็นหน้าที่ของสมาชิกรัฐสภา ในฐานะผู้แทนของประชาชนที่จะต้องรักษาและเสริมสร้างเอกลักษณ์ดังกล่าวนี้ การรับมือกับความแตกต่างทางวัฒนธรรมในเอเชีย พวกเราในฐานะสมาชิกรัฐสภาของประเทศในเอเชีย จะต้องให้ความสำคัญกับประเด็นต่าง ๆ อาทิ ความหลากหลายทางวัฒนธรรมและมรดกทางวัฒนธรรม สตรี ความช่วยเหลือด้านมนุษยธรรม ความอดกลั้นระหว่างศาสนา การต่อต้านการทุจริต การต่อสู้กับการค้าสินค้าและวัตถุทางวัฒนธรรม การต่อสู้กับการค้ายาเสพติด เทคโนโลยีสารสนเทศและการสื่อสาร ความเท่าเทียมด้านสุขภาพในเอเชีย พวกเราจำเป็นต้องปรับใช้มาตรการที่มีประสิทธิภาพให้มากขึ้น เพื่อสร้างอัตลักษณ์ทางศาสนาระดับชาติและชาติเอเชียร่วมกัน

ท้ายสุดนี้ พวกเราจำเป็นต้องให้ความสนใจเป็นพิเศษกับความสามารถและความสำคัญของสังคมในเอเชีย โดยการขยายความร่วมมือระหว่างประเทศและผู้นำประเทศ อาจกล่าวได้ว่า ผู้นำรุ่นก่อน ๆ ได้วางหลักการพื้นฐานและเป้าหมายของคณะกรรมการเพื่อให้เกิดการพัฒนาอย่างยั่งยืนและสมดุลในเอเชียในด้านการส่งเสริมแนวทางวัฒนธรรมของเอเชีย และในฐานะเป็นธรรมนูญของสมาชิก APA และขอเน้นย้ำการปฏิบัติตามหลักการและเป้าหมายดังกล่าว ความท้าทายและวิกฤตการณ์พื้นฐานแก้ไขได้อย่างดีที่สุด ดังนั้นแนวทางของรัฐสภาสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่านตั้งอยู่บนพื้นฐานของความพอประมาณ การประชุมหารือที่สร้างสรรค์และมุ่งมั่นให้ความสำคัญกับความร่วมมือกับทวีปเอเชียที่มีมาอย่างยาวนาน เพื่อดำเนินการแก้ปัญหาและขยายความร่วมมือด้านเศรษฐกิจ

อย่างไรก็ตาม การแก้ไขข้อพิพาทและขจัดอุปสรรคในความร่วมมือผ่านการเจรจาและการปรึกษาหารือถือเป็นความสำคัญหลักของสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่าน ในโลกปัจจุบัน มีความเชื่อมโยงหลายมิติระหว่างวัฒนธรรม เศรษฐกิจ การเมือง และความมั่นคง การมุ่งเน้นที่เพิ่มความร่วมมือทางการค้าและเศรษฐกิจเป็นหนึ่งในเสาหลักที่สามารถนำไปสู่การพัฒนาและการเติบโตของทวีปเอเชียต่อไปบนรากฐานของความหลากหลายทางวัฒนธรรมของเอเชีย นำไปสู่การพัฒนาและการเติบโตของทวีปเอเชียต่อไป

โดยสรุป ขอเน้นว่า ความท้าทายในปัจจุบันเป็นระดับข้ามชาติไม่มีประเทศใดจัดการปัญหาได้เพียงลำพัง ดังนั้น การบรรลุการพัฒนาอย่างยั่งยืนและสมดุลในด้านต่าง ๆ รวมทั้งด้านวัฒนธรรมและสังคมจึงเป็นไปได้โดยอาศัยความร่วมมือและการมีส่วนร่วมกันของประเทศต่าง ๆ ในเอเชีย โดยสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่านเชื่อว่า การเสริมสร้างการพบปะหารือระหว่างประเทศต่าง ๆ ในเอเชีย และใช้มาตรการในการดำเนินงานเพื่อเข้าถึงเอเชียแบบใหม่ ทำให้ยกระดับความสามารถในทวีปเอเชียให้สถานะที่เท่าเทียมในระดับโลก รวมทั้งความร่วมมือที่มากขึ้นระหว่างรัฐสภาของประเทศในเอเชียและความสามารถทางสติปัญญาจะสนับสนุนการประชุมนี้ของทวีปเอเชียที่มีมาอย่างยาวนาน และจะเจริญรุ่งเรืองต่อไปในอนาคต

หลังจากนั้น นาง PASHAEE BAHARAM หัวหน้าคณะผู้แทนรัฐสภาสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่าน ในสมัชชารัฐสภาเอเชีย ผู้ทำหน้าที่ประธานการประชุมคณะกรรมการมาธิการว่าด้วยสังคมและวัฒนธรรมของสมัชชา รัฐสภาเอเชีย (APA) ได้กล่าวต้อนรับผู้เข้าร่วมการประชุม

บรรยากาศการเข้าร่วมการประชุมของคณะผู้แทนรัฐสภาไทย

บทบาทของคณะผู้แทนไทย

ในการประชุมครั้งนี้ นายอิสระ เสรีวัฒนวุฒิ สมาชิกสภาผู้แทนราษฎร ได้กล่าวถ้อยแถลงเพื่อแสดงความคิดเห็นสนับสนุนร่างข้อมติ จำนวน ๒ ร่างข้อมติ ประกอบด้วย

๑) ร่างข้อมติว่าด้วยการส่งเสริมพัฒนาเด็กและเยาวชนให้มีคุณภาพเพื่อสังคมที่ยั่งยืนในภูมิภาคเอเชีย (Draft Resolution on the Promotion of Quality Child and Youth Development for Sustainable Society in Asia) ซึ่งเสนอโดยรัฐสภาไทย โดยผู้แทนรัฐสภาไทยได้กล่าวสนับสนุนร่างข้อมติฉบับนี้ เนื่องจากประชากรวัยหนุ่มสาวในวันนี้จะต้องอยู่กับผลการกระทำของรุ่นก่อน ดังนั้น ประชากรวัยหนุ่มสาวร่วมมือกับกลุ่มประชากรกลุ่มวัยต่าง ๆ เพื่อสร้างสังคมที่น่าอยู่ร่วมกัน โดยหวังว่าคุณภาพชีวิตของประชากรวัยหนุ่มสาวได้เป็นแรงบันดาลใจให้ประชากรรุ่นลูกหลานมีความรับผิดชอบต่อสังคม และให้มีจิตสำนึกต่อสิ่งแวดล้อมร่วมกันเพื่อเป็นสังคมที่น่าอยู่อย่างที่ยั่งยืน และรัฐสภาไทยสนับสนุนร่างข้อมติที่ได้เสนอเมื่อเดือนกุมภาพันธ์ ๒๕๖๒ ที่กรุงเทพมหานคร

ในปัจจุบันเนื่องจากการระบาดของโรคโควิด-๑๙ การประชุมในครั้งนี้ส่งผลให้เกิดการแก้ไขปัญหาอย่างจริงจัง เพื่อเตรียมความพร้อมให้เด็กและเยาวชนมีส่วนร่วมในสังคมอย่างเหมาะสม ซึ่งการพัฒนาต้องใช้เวลา เด็กและเยาวชนที่มีคุณภาพพัฒนาได้ด้วยสวัสดิภาพและโอกาสที่มีคุณภาพ ประการแรก สวัสดิการสังคมที่มีคุณภาพ หมายถึง การดูแลสุขภาพที่ดี การศึกษา และการฝึกอบรม รวมถึงการป้องกันต่อการละเมิดความรุนแรง การแสวงหาผลประโยชน์มิชอบ และการเลือกปฏิบัติ ประการที่สอง โอกาสที่มีคุณภาพคือ พลังอำนาจเป็นสมาชิกที่มีประสิทธิภาพของสังคม ตัวอย่างเช่น การระบาดของโรคโควิด-๑๙ ได้ขัดขวางการดำเนินการศึกษาในประเทศกำลังพัฒนา นอกเหนือจากการดิ้นรนและทำงานอย่างหนักในแต่ละวัน พ่อแม่และผู้ปกครองต้องรับภาระจากอุปกรณ์อำนวยความสะดวกในการเรียนผ่านออนไลน์ ในจำนวนหลายครอบครัวไม่สามารถปฏิบัติตามข้อกำหนดดังกล่าว จำเป็นต้องให้ลูกออกจากโรงเรียน ในฐานะสมาชิกรัฐสภา เราควรตรวจสอบให้แน่ใจว่ารัฐบาลของเรามุ่งมั่นที่จะให้การศึกษาวิถีใหม่ในรูปแบบที่ทุกคนสามารถจัดทำได้ ivo้วางใจได้ และเข้าถึงนักเรียนทุกคน โดยรัฐสภาไทยหวังเป็นอย่างยิ่งว่า ร่างข้อมติฉบับนี้จะได้รับการสนับสนุนจากประเทศสมาชิก APA ในวันที่ เนื่องจากจะเป็นประโยชน์กับประเทศสมาชิก APA โดยเฉพาะเพื่อเด็กและเยาวชนในเอเชีย

๒) ร่างข้อมติว่าด้วยประเด็นสังคมผู้สูงอายุในภูมิภาคเอเชีย (Draft Resolution on Aging Society in Asia) เสนอโดยรัฐสภาไทย โดยผู้แทนไทยได้กล่าวสนับสนุนร่างข้อมติฉบับดังกล่าว เนื่องจากการคาดการณ์การเปลี่ยนแปลงทางประชากรศาสตร์ที่มีต่อสังคมผู้สูงอายุในเอเชีย ซึ่งเกิดจากการเพิ่มขึ้นของจำนวนผู้สูงอายุและการลดลงของอัตราการเจริญพันธุ์ได้ก่อให้เกิดความกังวลอย่างมากเป็นเวลาหลายปี ปัจจุบันประมาณร้อยละ ๑๓ ของประชากรในภูมิภาคเอเชียและแปซิฟิกมีอายุ ๖๐ ปีขึ้นไป และในปี พ.ศ. ๒๕๙๓ นับจากนี้อีก ๑๙ ปีอาจจะเป็นร้อยละ ๒๔ หรือประมาณ ๑.๓ พันล้านคน ความท้าทายในการเข้าสู่สังคมผู้สูงอายุคือผู้สูงอายุมีคุณภาพชีวิตที่ดีในแง่สุขภาพ เศรษฐกิจ สังคมและสิ่งแวดล้อม เมื่อปี พ.ศ. ๒๕๖๓ จากการศึกษาของธนาคารเพื่อการพัฒนาแห่งเอเชีย (ADB) ระบบครอบครัวแบบดั้งเดิมทำให้สังคมผู้สูงอายุในเอเชียเป็นไปอย่างรวดเร็ว จึงทำให้สังคมอ่อนแอลงไปในเอเชีย เนื่องจากการย้ายถิ่นที่เพิ่มขึ้น สังคมเมือง การลดขนาดครอบครัว

และการขยายการมีส่วนร่วมตลาดแรงงานหญิง ในช่วงการระบาดของโรคโควิด-๑๙ จะเห็นได้ชัดว่า ระบบการดูแลระยะยาวสำหรับผู้สูงอายุ โดยเฉพาะในกลุ่มผู้ที่เปราะบางได้รับผลกระทบในการได้รับการสนับสนุนการเงินจากบริการสาธารณะที่ไม่ทันสถานการณ์ นอกจากนี้ วิทยาลัยศรียาอาเซียน พ.ศ. ๒๕๖๘ มุ่งเน้นที่การแก้ไขความต้องการของผู้สูงอายุและกลุ่มเปราะบางอื่น ๆ ในประเทศสมาชิก ที่ได้มีการระบุพื้นฐานสำคัญ ๓ ประการ เพื่อเตรียมความพร้อมสำหรับผู้สูงอายุ ประกอบด้วย

- ๑) การคุ้มครองทางสังคมสำหรับผู้สูงอายุ
- ๒) การส่งเสริมและคุ้มครองสิทธิของผู้สูงอายุ
- ๓) เสริมสร้างความเข้มแข็งให้กับครอบครัวและชุมชน

ทั้งนี้ เพื่อให้สอดคล้องกับวาระการพัฒนาที่ยั่งยืนปี พ.ศ. ๒๕๗๓ และแผนปฏิบัติการระหว่างประเทศ มาตราว่าด้วยเรื่องผู้สูงอายุ ร่างข้อเสนอดังนี้เป็นอีกหนึ่งก้าวที่สำคัญสำหรับประเทศในเอเชียในการพัฒนาและนำกฎหมายที่เกี่ยวข้องมาใช้ในการสนับสนุนและดูแลผู้สูงอายุ ดังนั้น รัฐสภาไทยขอเชิญสนับสนุนร่างข้อเสนอนี้ที่ประเทศไทยได้เสนอเมื่อคราวเป็นเจ้าภาพจัดการประชุมฯ เมื่อเดือนกุมภาพันธ์ พ.ศ. ๒๕๖๒ ที่กรุงเทพฯ ซึ่งได้รับการยอมรับเป็นอย่างดีจากที่ประชุมฯ โดยร่างข้อเสนอดังกล่าว ได้รับการรับรองจากที่ประชุมเพื่อนำเข้าสู่การพิจารณาของที่ประชุมคณะมนตรีบริหารของ APA ต่อไป

ต่อที่ประชุมคณะกรรมการว่าด้วยสังคมและวัฒนธรรมของ APA

การนำเสนอร่างข้อเสนอดังกล่าว

หลังจากได้พิจารณาและได้รับรองร่างข้อเสนอดังกล่าวจำนวน ๑๓ ฉบับ คณะผู้แทนของตุรกีและอิหร่าน ได้นำเสนอร่างข้อเสนอดังกล่าว จำนวน ๒ ฉบับ ซึ่งได้รับการรับรองในหลักการโดยคณะกรรมการว่าด้วยสังคมและวัฒนธรรมของสมัชชารัฐสภาเอเชีย ในส่วนของการพิจารณาโดยละเอียดในเนื้อหาสาระต่อน

เอกสารร่างข้อมติดังกล่าว จะมีการพิจารณาในการประชุมครั้งต่อไป โดยร่างข้อมติทั้ง ๒ ฉบับ ดังกล่าว ประกอบด้วย

- ร่างข้อมติว่าด้วยความร่วมมือด้านการท่องเที่ยวในเอเชีย (เสนอโดยตุรกี)
- ร่างข้อมติว่าด้วยความร่วมมือด้านการท่องเที่ยวอย่างยั่งยืนในเอเชีย (เสนอโดยอิหร่าน)

การปิดการประชุม

คณะผู้แทนจากหลายประเทศ รวมทั้งเลขาธิการสมัชชารัฐสภาเอเชีย ได้กล่าวขอบคุณรัฐสภาสาธารณรัฐอิสลามอิหร่านในฐานะที่เป็นเจ้าภาพจัดการประชุม โดยเฉพาะอย่างยิ่งประธานการประชุมสำหรับความเป็นผู้นำและบริหารจัดการการประชุมจนประสบความสำเร็จ

\(Attachment VI\)

5. Consideration of the Situation of Women Parliamentarians in Asia:

APA by /Res/2014/16, decided to establish Special Committee of APA women parliamentarians under the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs.

The following member parliaments presented their views on this agenda item: Iran, Pakistan, Philippines, Yemen, Bangladesh, and U.A.E. The statements covered issues such as: Women and family-based economy, Empowering women in Judiciary, Governments and Legislative branches...damages done to the economic status of women and girls due to pandemic...statistics on women employments and entrepreneur...the situation of women under sanctions...Gender equality and Justice...percentage of women representation in parliaments... etc.

6. Consideration and Recommendations on the Draft Resolutions:

The Chair stated that participants should have received and studied the draft Resolutions as well as relevant amendments prior to attending the meeting. She continued saying that more than 240 amendments to 13 resolutions were offered by participants and thus ruled that new amendments will be addressed after dealing with all written ones, if time allows. She also requested the Participants to avoid raising disputable and challenging views due to limitation we face by the virtual nature of the meeting.

The following documents were attended one by one and in each draft resolution, the authors of amendments presented their contributions in order to improve the content of the documents.

After extensive debates and exchange of views, the draft resolutions were adopted by consensus and/or differed for further and closer consideration to the next meeting of Standing Committee. (A number of reservations were registered on the content of some paragraphs of the resolutions which are indicated as footnotes).

Text of the Statement
Delivered on behalf of the H.E. Dr. Ghalibaf, Speaker of the Islamic Parliament of Iran, at the Virtual Meeting of the Standing Committee on Cultural and Social Affairs
Of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly
14 July 2021

In the Name of God
the Beneficent, the Merciful

Distinguished Parliamentarians of Asian countries;

Excellencies;

Ladies and gentlemen;

Allow me first to extend my warm and sincere greetings from Tehran, the capital of the Islamic Republic of Iran, to the distinguished heads of delegation and parliamentarians attending this Meeting of the APA Committee on Cultural and Social Affairs.

It is with pleasure that the Islamic Parliament of Iran has had the privilege of hosting this august assembly today. I hope that the COVID situation will soon ease up and allow us to receive Your Excellencies in person here in Tehran.

It goes beyond doubt that positive and constructive co-operation and interaction between APA Member Parliaments and dialogue and consultation among parliamentarians at all levels will bolster the achievements of this important parliamentary institution as APA is, beget consolidated collaboration, and foster increased convergence across this ancient continent of Asia.

I hope that your active participation and constructive contribution as representatives of the ancient and historical continent of Asia can produce valuable fruit in line with the lofty objectives of the Assembly.

I would like to underscore that while we embrace ethnic, religious and national diversity across the Asian continent, we believe that God-centrism is the fundamental basis and core axis of human's individual and social life. Man has been bestowed this gift of voluntary perfection and prosperity. If he but only chose the right choices and make recourse to divine guidance, then he shall attain the ultimate perfection.

We are convinced that in the context of social and cultural interactions, the most fundamental unit of society is the 'family', with an irreplaceable role in producing, preserving and promoting culture within communities. Despite certain differences, societies are all under the same umbrella of influence by divine traditions and common, universal evolutionary laws.

Ladies and gentlemen,

Common knowledge as it is, the crucial issue of culture, per se and irrespective of the pervasive ideologies and attitudes in a given society, overshadows other aspects of any nation's life. As such, development in all economic, political, educational and social fronts requires a rich culture that is founded on local and national values. The outcome of such an outlook in the society will be economic growth and sustainable and balanced development.

I am of the conviction that given the cultural diversity and plurality in Asia, it can promote its status only if it preserves its continental and collective identity. Asian nations have surely paid a high price for the preservation of their national and collective identity. Thus, it is incumbent on parliamentarians, as the voice of the people, to preserve and strengthen that identity.

Dear colleagues;

In order to cushion the adverse ramifications of social-cultural harms, We, as members of the parliaments of Asian countries, must lay focus on such issues as 'cultural diversity and cultural heritage', 'women', 'humanitarian aid', 'interfaith dialogue', 'fight against corruption', 'fight against trafficking of cultural property and goods', 'fight against drug trafficking', "information and communications technology" and "health equity in Asia'. We need adopt more effective measures to establish our religious, national and collective Asian identity in the face of the wrong Western approach to culture. To this end, we need pay special attention to the capacities and priorities of our societies by expanding international and executive co-operation.

Honorable participants,

It can be said that the predecessors have laid out the basic principles and goals of this Committee so as to achieve sustainable and balanced development in Asia in light of promoting the Asian approach to culture and serve as a blueprint for the Members of the Assembly.

I would like to stress that by following these principles and goals, many of the fundamental challenges and crises can be addressed in the best possible manner. Accordingly, the approach of the Islamic Parliament of Iran is premised upon moderation, constructive interaction and strive for giving priority to co-operation with the ancient continent of Asia in order to find operational solutions to the expansion of economic co-operation.

In this regard, resolving disputes and removing barriers to co-operation through dialogue and consultation is one of the main priorities of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

In today's world, there is this multidimensional link between culture, economy, politics and security. Concentrating on increasing trade and economic co-operation is one of the pillars that can, on the bedrocks of Asia's cultural diversity, pave the way for the further development and growth of the continent.

In conclusion, I would like to emphasize that the current challenges at the transnational level are such that no country can single-handedly tackle them. Therefore, achieving sustainable and balanced development in various areas, including cultural and social spheres, is merely possible through co-operation among and collective participation of the Asian countries.

The Islamic Republic of Iran believes that by fostering expanded interactions between and among Asian states, it is possible to enjoy new intellectual advances and take operational measures to reach a New Asia and raise the Asian continent to its real and befitting status in global equations.

I am confident that through greater cooperation between the parliaments of Asian countries and as a result of your intellectual support in this meeting, the ancient continent of Asia shall await a lustrous future ahead. Once again, I would like to thank you for your attendance in this meeting. I wish you every success in your endeavors.

Thank you for your attention

Peace be upon you, and God's blessings and mercy.

Statement by H.E. Ms. Dr. PASHAEE Chairperson of the APA Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs July 14, 2021, Tehran

Honorable Heads of Parliamentary Delegations

Distinguished MPs,

At the outset, I would like to extend my warm greetings from the Islamic Consultative Assembly of Islamic Republic of Iran to the honorable MPs of APA member states. It is my absolute pleasure to host my dear colleagues in the capacity of the meeting of APA permanent committee on social and cultural affairs.

I would like to specially thank my dear colleagues who have participated in this important meeting. Also I would like to express my gratitude towards the honorable secretary General, His Excellency Dr. Majidi, and his colleagues in the Secretariat who made the necessary arrangements for holding this meeting in a proper manner.

Dear Colleagues,

In a period that the international community is facing a multitude of various challenges and disputes, the coming together of Asian Parliamentarians in the format of APA, underlies the special role and significance of social and cultural topics as an important and effective solution for overcoming regional and international challenges.

International relations are based on multiple foundations; one of which is culture as the beliefs, traditions, and habits of every nation. So that, cultures are considered as the reason for international tensions and on the hand as the one for international integration. The concept of culture, pre and post-globalization, along with political, economic and security concepts and foundations, is still playing its part in the international system and relations and in the modern day, exceptional attention has been paid to its functions in different levels. In other words, culture, in the format of intercultural activities, provides international peace and security and in the format of cultural relations causes the facilitation of diplomacy.

Ladies and Gentlemen

The developments in recent decades in the field of international relations indicates the importance of culture in reaching goals and improving inter-community relations. Obtaining international credit and validity and reaching the public mind or in other words reaching soft power is one of the important and yet unspecified goals of diplomacy in the area of international policy which is reachable thorough the culture that fits the cultural position, opportunities, and capacities of a country. Culture is a moderate language that can lay the foundation and support the formal intergovernmental relations and prevent the creation of violent crises in the field of international relations. Thus, governments are leaning towards the solidification of the Epistemological foundations of their culture and generalizing created values, knowledge, and attitudes beyond their geographical borders in order to have one of the means of imposing power besides political and military power (hard power) and align the global public mind in accordance with their interests and goals by resorting to the mechanism of cultural saturation instead of sheer force.

On the other hand, culture as the driving force of development, lay the groundwork for the propulsion of societies and the models of political, social and economic behaviors which its role has gradually found importance as an alternative paradigm with the ebb of ideological challenges. This type of attitude towards politics, or in other words cultural politics, has specific theoretical and pragmatic requirements including causing the definition of politics to be defined not only around the phenomenon called government, but also as phenomenon in all social relations, manifestations, and institutions. Also treating politics as a cultural sensitivity instead of beneficial activity and the idea that every matter is cultural. According to this, the harsh truth of politics and power are sugarcoated by cultural instruments and methods and cultural infrastructure, reintegrates political activities in the level of domestic and global politics.

Dear Colleagues,

Asia is the cradle of human civilization and has always been the origin of religions, cultures and philosophical schools and has had a great share in the human culture and civilization. Various heritages in this ancient continent, is the precious cultural and social treasure of Asian people and solidifies our identity and acts as a bridge for the continuation of the relationship among Asian nations. They are strong links that connects Asian nations through the continent. Therefore, nowadays we have to underline the common cultural heritage among Asian countries instead of cultural divergence and passivism caused by spread of foreign cultures in order to improve our common understanding and stand on this firm belief that this common understanding will help to formulate an Asian collective identity as a “WE” and a unified body based on the existing rich Asian culture in the current tumultuous world.

Cultural and social cooperation can include a broad spectrum of intellectual issues and phenomena in the path towards strengthening solidarity and peace as well as controlling regional and international challenges. Common Asian religious, cultural and ethnic values such as philanthropy, mutual respect, seeking peace and justice, are precious values in order to pave the way to making more efforts towards enhancing dialogue and integration among Asian communities and laying the groundwork for exchanging experiences while facing regional inefficiencies and problems to reach a common collective chapter in the path towards realization of firm and strong relations and sustainable development.

With that in mind and the proper capacities in APA, it is hereby suggested that headlines “Cultural and Social Cooperation”, “The Role of Culture and Cultural Elite” and “The Consideration of Women’s Position in Family-Centered Economy” as a strategy to leave behind the challenges that lead to divergence and passivism in Asia be put on the agenda of this assembly as a remedial solution. Obviously, precise determination of goals, efforts to reach pragmatic and practical solutions, commitment to cooperation within the framework of agreements and a strong determination to continue this path, are among the effective factors that can lead to the success of these suggestions. In this regard, the Islamic Consultative Assembly of Islamic Republic of Iran submits the “Draft Resolution on Women and Family-centered Economy” to the meeting and expresses its readiness to cooperate with other APA member state parliaments in order to advance and operationalize the abovementioned suggestions.

In the end, I would like to reiterate my appreciation towards the participants in this meeting and I wish for the best and most constructive decisions to be made in accordance with the approved agenda. The Islamic Consultative Assembly of Islamic Republic of Iran, undoubtedly, as before, as an honest and determined partner, expresses its readiness to cooperate with other APA member state parliaments on the path towards the realization and fulfillment of justice, welfare and prosperity for all Asian countries.

Thank you for your attention

Attachment V

Statement by H.E. Ms. Asuman ERDOĞAN

Chairperson of the Turkish Delegation to the Asian Parliamentary Assembly

Honourable Secretary-General

Honourable Delegations

Distinguished Participants,

I would like to thank the Islamic Parliament of Iran and Head of Iranian Delegation to the APA, Ms. Dr. Masoumeh PASHAEI BAHRAM as well as the Secretariat of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly for their efforts of preparing this meeting as previously agreed. I also would like to thank all the Member Parliaments and distinguished delegations for their participations in and contributions to the meeting, and for their invaluable efforts towards cooperation in Asia.

As the easternmost country of Europe and the westernmost country of Asia, Turkey plays a unique role in bridging the two continents. Turkey, on the one hand, signifies a deep integration with the West, it does not detach itself from its proud roots in Asia and attaches great importance to its integration with the continent, on the other.

Turkey is devising new strategies to best position itself in this era frequently characterized as the “Asian century”. Founded on its multi-dimensional and humanitarian foreign policy, Turkey announced “Asia Anew Initiative” in 2019 in this regard, introducing new strategic visions into its Asia policy. The initiative is a long-term endeavor, taking into account the vast political, economic and cultural diversity of the continent. Under the Initiative, Turkey aims at broadening its relations with Asian countries on the bases of common interests and objectives.

We strongly believe the importance of home-grown initiatives pursuing regional integration by cultivating economic, cultural and people-to-people linkages and promoting multilateral cooperation, based on the idea that regional issues require primarily regional responses for sustainable solutions and progresses. Turkey is prepared to work closely with each and every partner in Asia towards building healthy, resilient and sustainable societies across the region. Furthermore, it closely follows the developments in the region and their possible implications on regional and global social, economic and political currents. Therefore, we deem it important to use the capacity of multilateral platforms to create synergy, and work collectively to ensure peace, stability and sustainable development in the region.

Distinguished Participants,

The Covid-19 pandemic has been one of the grave calamities that humanity has ever faced. As the new variants of the coronavirus has been emerging across the globe, its adverse impacts on the humanity still continue unabated, the struggle against which necessitates more robust and resolute regional and international cooperation. Unfortunately, the Covid-19 pandemic has so far cost more than 4 million lives across the globe. Beyond such fatal consequences for human lives, it has also grave political, economic, and social implications. The Covid-19 pandemic is much more than a health crisis. If not tackled, it has the potential to inflict further damage to societies, economies and livelihoods, and it is likely to erode the gains made towards defeating poverty and many other diseases.

The Covid-19 outbreak affects all segments of the population and is particularly detrimental to members of those social groups in the most vulnerable situations. The health and economic impacts of the virus are being borne disproportionately by poor people. The pandemic is deepening poverty and inequality. The pandemic has increased global, regional and national fragilities. Many countries, from Latin America to Africa and the Middle East to South and Southeast Asia, are facing difficulties in their health systems and food supply.

Demonstrating full and inclusive cooperation in the equitable access to vaccines, medicines and medical equipment, including personal protective equipment is vital for the lives and livelihoods of humanity and for the health of global economy. There is also clear need to consider the socio-economic consequences of the pandemic for the least developed countries and take this consideration into account in the formulation of assistance policies. In this regard, social inclusion and international cooperation should be at the forefront of our efforts against the virus.

We firmly believe that humanity is on the same boat in countering and defeating this calamity. Therefore, it is imperative to act with a sense of unity and solidarity. Unless every corner of the world is safe from the outbreak, no nation or society will be able to feel safe, as more and more variants of the virus emerge and accelerate its transmission.

Since the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic, Turkey has been committed to international cooperation and solidarity in the fight against the virus. Turkey has contributed to the work of the United Nations, Group of Twenty, World Health Organization, Turkic Council, the Group of Mexico, Indonesia, Korea, Turkey and Australia, Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) and many other international platforms.

Equitable, adequate and affordable access to vaccines is vital. As Turkey, we have already announced that once we develop our own domestic vaccines we will offer them to the whole humanity, considering vaccine as a global public good to be equitable available in all countries.

In the course of the pandemic, Turkey has always underscored that unhindered and equitable access by all countries to medicines, vaccines and medical equipment, in an affordable manner is integral to a coordinated and effective global response to COVID-19. With this conviction, we have sent medical equipment and other types of critical material to 159 countries and 12 international organizations, and continue to do so.

We have launched our mass vaccination campaign on January 13, 2021. In a short while, Turkey has become one of the leading countries in terms of the speed of inoculations. Since Turkey launched her vaccination campaign, the number of doses administered has exceeded 60 million. With the current figures, we are one of the leading countries in terms of the total number of vaccines administered, being in the 9th rank globally.

When our domestic vaccine is ready for deployment, we intend to put it in the service of all humanity, increasing also our vaccine aid. Turkey defends the view that availability of a vaccine to humanity as a whole and its production in adequate quantities for all are as critical as its development. It is important to supply the vaccine to the entire world population including vulnerable communities and least developed countries, where the pandemic poses greater risks.

As has been the case with our medical equipment assistance, we will have a responsible, human-centered and principled approach regarding the equitable access to vaccines. As a matter of fact many friendly countries are looking to Turkey for the provision of vaccine and we have already provided vaccine to several friendly nations.

Turkey considers development, welfare, employment, health and access to the anti-Covid-19 vaccines as global rights for everyone. With this understanding, Turkey is working relentlessly to create a common understanding and to promote effective policies and measures at all relevant international platforms.

As APA President, we seek to develop and strengthen cooperation channels under this platform through videoconferences and in-person meetings. Because, we believe that we have no option but to advance our diplomatic endeavors and carry out all the meetings under the Asian Parliamentary Assembly for the benefit of all the Members. We put our efforts to promote international dialogues, peaceful resolution of international issues and confidence-building measures to contribute to the mutual development of the continent. In this regard, I sincerely hope this meeting will strengthen and accelerate the pace of parliamentary diplomacy under the Asian Parliamentary Assembly, and hope to continue our meetings in-person soon.

Thank you!

Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs
(Virtual Meeting)
Tehran- Islamic Republic of Iran
14 July 2021

Report of the Secretary General

Madam Chair,
Distinguished Delegates,
Dear Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure and honor to welcome you all to the second APA regular Committee meetings being held in virtual format in year 2021. I appreciate all the APA member parliaments and in particular the Presidency for supporting the Secretariat initiative to hold APA regular meetings virtually. At the same time, allow me to seize this opportunity to thank the Islamic Parliament of Iran and its APA Group who took the burden of holding this virtual event.

Dear Colleagues,

As you may recall, at its meeting of 13-14 February 2019 in Bangkok, the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs had before thirteen draft resolutions. Three of the draft resolutions were new proposals submitted by delegations of Thailand and Kuwait. The Meeting adopted ten draft resolutions and three new draft resolutions were adopted in principal and its consideration deferred to next Standing Committee meeting.

My report today focuses on two central issues: Certain outstanding features of the resolutions and the challenges and innovative ideas.

A. Certain outstanding features of the Resolutions:

1- Establishing an award to promote cultural diversity

In the Resolution on “Measures to Promote Cultural Diversity and Protect Cultural Heritage in Asia”, APA Member Parliaments are called to support establishing an award to be presented annually to outstanding Asian artists, authors, poets, film makers, painters, who best convey the APA’s commitment to cultural diversity in Asia. We have not any progress on this call yet.

2- Creating Asian Virtual Parliament

In the Resolution on “Asian Integration through Information and Communication Technology”, Creation of the Asian Virtual Parliament has been the focus of attention. It calls on APA Member Parliaments to volunteer for providing knowledge and know-how, technical assistance, financial support, human resources in creating a “Virtual Asian Parliament”. We have not seen any practical action in this regard too.

3. Basic health services in Asia & COVID-19 Outbreak

The Resolution on “Collaboration on Health Equity in Asia”, underlines access to basic health services and medicine as a universally accepted norm arising from fundamental elements of human rights. Accordingly, it calls on international community to support and assist developing countries in Asia and avoid all politically motivated measures aimed at hampering their access to basic health services. COVID-19 outbreak and its implications for the current world health system as an important related issue should be duly addressed in this draft resolution.

4. Establishing W.G to consider APA Plan of Action on Combating Corruption

The Resolution on “Asian Parliamentarians against Corruption” decides to set up a working group under the auspices of the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs to further consider the APA Plan of Action on Combating Corruption. To this end, we should prepare the ground for the implementation of this decision and establish the working group to consider the APA Plan of Action on Combating Corruption.

5. Special Committee of APA women parliamentarian

Under the Resolution on “APA Women Parliamentarians”, it is decided to establish Special Committee of APA women parliamentarian. This Resolution also requested the APA Secretariat to assign one part of its website to women parliamentarians of Asia. I am pleased to announce today that a part of the APA website is allocated to the activities of the women parliamentarians of Asia and I encourage all Asian women parliamentarian to use this page for their networking activities.

6. APA membership to UN AOC

As regards the Resolution on “Promoting Inter-Faith Dialogue and Harmony among World Religions”, at its 11th Session the APA General Assembly—applied for Asian Parliamentary Assembly’s membership to the Group of Friends of the UN Alliance of Civilizations (UN AOC). In the course of 2019, the APA Secretariat with the assistant of Turkish delegation finalized the process of membership.

7. Formation of a separate Corps Unit

The Resolution on “Legal and Legislative Cooperation in Combating the Smuggling of Cultural Items in Asia”, expresses support for the formation of a separate Corps Unit from APA Member Parliaments to protect and safeguard historical cultural properties from the perils of unlawful excavations, theft and smuggling. We had not any progress in this regard too.

Dear Colleagues,

What I raised above were some of the outstanding issues in the Agenda of this Committee. There is no doubt that progress and implementation of such decisions and recommendations in near future, require the will and interests of all member parliaments.

B. Challenges and innovative ideas

In conclusion, I would like to touch on certain challenges facing us and raise some innovative ideas to encourage more active participation and contribution on the part of all APA member parliaments.

- There is no doubt, meetings in virtual format imposes certain restrictions in process of deliberations at the APA standing committees and working groups which require more intensive and interactive debates.
- Facing with COVID-19 pandemic during the last two years and restrictions to hold APA regular meetings, calls on APA Parliamentarians to redouble their efforts in order to efficiently address the key issues within the context of the draft resolutions before the Standing Committees.
- In the four Standing Committees we are facing with number of draft resolutions which have remained in the agenda for several years without any substantial changes in the absence of an established rules of procedure to take them off the agenda.
- Deferring consideration of draft resolution from one meeting to the next without having certain rules of procedure is another challenge that we are facing with.
- Just like other international and regional organizations, the APA, should try hard to move actively and lively and get engaged in all matters relevant to the regional and international affairs. The APA Member parliaments are expected to actively contribute and share their innovative ideas, plans and projects in the framework of APA Standing Committees.
- During the last five years, I, in my capacity as Secretary General and as an academician, have devotedly tried to introduce and raise innovative ideas and plans in my reports and statements in all APA gatherings with the aim of keeping track of social, cultural, political, economic and legal discourses at regional and international arena.

Dear Colleagues,

Finally, I would like to once again underline the need of having a supervisory organ mandated with the task of monitoring and coordinating activities of the Standing Committees. This supervisory body may set standards, define objectives; recommend new topics and dropout unnecessary and redundant documents etc. for each Committee. We at the Secretariat believe that the APA Bureau constitute a well versed entity to shoulder the tasks enumerated above and decides accordingly at its regular meetings.

Thank you very much for your attention

18. Stress on the important role the private sector can play in promoting cultural diversity, encouraging the development of plans and mechanisms to create a space for dialogue between the private and public sectors to develop plans to manage, protect, and promote cultural diversity in Asia;

19. Also stress on the important role the parliamentarians can play in developing policies and legislation to promote the principles enshrined in the UNESCO World Day for Cultural Diversity in their countries and to develop appropriate mechanisms for developing plans and regulatory frameworks to manage the cultural heritage sites, by identifying the cultural importance of these sites, maintaining their authenticity and preserving their value while respecting international laws for cultural diversity;
20. Call upon the APA Member's Parliaments to support the cultural diversity including respect to regional and national particularities and various historical, cultural and religious backgrounds regardless of their political, economic and cultural systems, to promote and protect all human rights and fundamental freedoms, as part of intangible asset and heritage of human culture.

Draft Resolution on Asian Integration through Information and Communication Technology

We, the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,

Reaffirming that right of access to information is an integral part of the fundamental right of freedom of expression, as recognized by Resolution 59 of the UN General Assembly adopted in 1946, as well as by Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966);

Recalling para.5 of Article 3 of the APA Charter;

Also Recalling WSIS³ Outcomes of 2003, 2005 held under UN aegis to build a people centered, inclusive and development oriented information society and UN resolution 125 of the UN General Assembly adopted at its 70th session in 2016 on High level review of WSIS+10 on global ICTs development and measures to facilitate accomplishment of SDGs;

Noting APA Resolution, APA/ Res/ 2014/11, and APA/Res/2014/13;

Underlining that Asian integration can be achieved through further dialogue, interaction, and communication among Asian people, parliamentarians, government officials, academic and educational institutions, and media for the promotion of peace, liberty, equality, human rights, and welfare in Asia;

Recognizing the fact that today Asia encompasses the biggest market in the world, the highest number of population; the largest amount of foreign currency reserves; and dynamic economic growth; especially after the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic has revealed the negative impact of misleading and false news that impeded the efforts of the international community to confront the pandemic;

Reaffirming the deep-rooted ties of history, geography, economy, culture, and civilization that bind Asian peoples together and the common interests pointing to the need for further cooperation;

Emphasizing on the principle of flow of information, privacy protection within the domestically applicable legal frameworks and also equitable access to communication and access to new technologies at the national, regional and global levels;

³ World Summit on Information Society held under the aegis of UN and ITU in 2003 and 2005

Deeply concerned by the proliferation of fake and fabricated news, misinformation and disinformation resulting due to misuse of Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) which generate sentiments, hostility and divisiveness among communities;

Underlining the transformational role of ICTs in daily life as an enabling factor in all areas of economy of national, regional, and global development;

Stressing the view that global networking provides opportunities for APA Member Parliaments to share experiences and engage in fruitful dialogue on significant issues in Asia and facilitates further cooperation and coordination, on the way of Asian integration process;

Also underlining that the Asian Virtual Parliament will pave the way for sharing information, harmonizing legislation and raising people's awareness about the activities of the legislative body and ensure a more profound feedback between society, power and individuals, and thus contribute to strengthening peace in Asia;

Emphasizing that, the role of parties, civil society, non- governmental organizations (NGOs) and other democratic structures in public sphere, provide opportunities in Asian countries for exchange of views, interactions and synergy to promote regional and global cooperation in order to reinforce the long term process for Asian Integration;

We therefore,

1. Call upon and emphasis APA Member Parliaments to volunteer for providing knowledge and know-how, technical assistance, financial support, human resources; and other forms of assistance in creating a "Virtual Asian Parliament" based on the report of APA Secretary General on the subject matter in order to enhance collaboration and interaction among parliaments and parliamentarians in Asia and as a prelude to establishing a model of Asian Parliament;
2. Determine the modern and traditional ways to help to complete a plan to promote, publicize and disseminate information amongst citizens within the APA region, including through the use of social media;
3. Recognize that information and communications technologies present new opportunities and challenges and that there is a pressing need to address the major impediments that developing countries face in accessing the new the new technologies, such as an appropriate enabling environment, sufficient resources, infrastructure, education, capacity, investment and connectivity;
4. Call upon APA Member Parliaments to support vocational and knowledge-based education in Asia in order to enhance people's life-skills and competitiveness in coping with the challenges of globalization;

5. Urge APA Member Parliaments to share best practices and exchange experiences with a view to inspiring a common approach toward Asian integration through holding special workshops and forums among Asian Member Parliaments;
6. Also call upon the UN, its specialized agencies, affiliated organizations, particularly ITU, the UN Specialized agency in ICTs, to support the Members of this Assembly through collaboration in improving access to ICTs and ICT-enabled services for the undeserved in the region in partnership with regional organizations in particular Asia Pacific Tele-community with an aim to bridge the digital divide and transfer of technologies and UNESCO, to support the Members of this Assembly to surmount the hurdles, identified by research centers, think tanks and intellectuals, hampering circulation of ideas through available means and for flow of communication and information subject to national legal frameworks;
7. Exhort APA Member Parliamentarians to collaborate and take necessary measures to promote the development of ICT infrastructure through enabling policies, capacity building, building confidence and security in the use of ICTs, inter alia;
8. Request APA Member Parliaments to promote parliamentary action to address the proliferation of fake and fabricated news, misinformation and disinformation caused by the misuse of ICTs and include initiatives to promote, information awareness, fact-checking collaboration and the establishment of complaint procedure mechanism, where necessary, without limiting the Asian Citizen's fundamental rights to know and freedom to access information as well as freedom of expression and assuming the responsibility of social media for their behavior in ICTs environment;
9. Invite the APA Secretary-General to seek possible technical and financial assistance from Member Parliaments and other institutions to facilitate the implementation of this resolution and prepare a report with comprehensive approach to accelerate the process of Asian Integration.

Draft Resolution on Collaboration on Health Equity in Asia

We, the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,

Recalling APA Resolutions, APA/Res/2013/07; APA/Res/2010/02; and APA/Res/2009/06;

Also recalling the report of the Secretary-General on Achieving Health Equity in Asia, SG/Rep/2011/02 Dated 22 August 2011, submitted to the meeting of the Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs held in Tehran, Islamic Republic of Iran on 13-14 September, 2011;

Welcoming the Report of the Secretary-General contained in SG/Rep/2014/02 dated 10 August, 2014;

Underlining the report of WHO Commission on Social Determinants of Health for addressing the impact of socio-economic inequalities on health at global, regional and national levels;

Noting Alma Ata Declaration adopted on 6-12 September 1978 which defined differences in health as a common concern of all countries and invited all to work on the fullest attainment of health for all and to reduce the gap between health status, and Astana Declaration adopted on 25-26 October 2018 reaffirming the commitments expressed in Alma Ata Declaration;

Taking note of difference of health equity status among countries in Asia;

Welcoming the Sustainable Development Goals adopted on 25 September 2015 and reaffirming its pivotal role in enhancement of the health equity;

Also welcoming the Political Declaration of the High-level Meeting of the UN General Assembly on the Prevention and Control of Non-Communicable Diseases, adopted on 19 September 2011, reaffirming the political will to effectively implement the commitments contained therein and referring to the outcome document of the high-level meeting of the UN General Assembly on the comprehensive review and assessment of the progress achieved in the prevention and control of non-communicable diseases;

Recognizing United Nation General Assembly resolution 66/288 on “The future we want”, which recognized health as a precondition for and an outcome and indicator of all three dimensions of sustainable development;

Considering the Rio Political Declaration on Social Determinants of Health endorsed by the Sixty-fifth World Health Assembly in resolution WHA65.8 in May 2012;

Emphasizing on United Nations General Assembly resolution 72/138 proclaiming 12 December as International Universal Health Coverage Day and calling upon APA Member Parliaments to benefit from this day to raise awareness and promote Universal Health Coverage in their policies;

Also welcoming the United Nations General Assembly high-level meeting on universal health coverage held on 23 September 2019 under the theme "Universal Health Coverage: Moving Together to Build a Healthier World" aimed at accelerating progress towards universal health coverage;

Recognizing that access to medicines is one of the fundamental elements in achieving progressively the full realization of the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health;

Recalling the importance of placing equity and human-centric policies in the core of health agenda and noting central role of enabling Universal Health Coverage to provide equitable access to quality health services without financial hardship and access to quality affordable medicine and medical technologies;

Also recognizing that health inequities arise from social determinants of health, that is, the societal conditions in which people are born, grow, live, work and age and gender that these determinants include experiences in their early years, education, economic status, employment and decent work, housing and environment, and effective systems of preventing and treating ill health;

Emphasizing the need to comprehensively combat social and health related problems emanating from illegal drugs, psychotropic, alcohol and tobacco products, and promote policies to prevent and control their use, abuse and addiction;

Expressing concern about the existing socio-economic inequalities and their impact on the poor and vulnerable population, as well as the remote geographical areas and underserved urban areas;

Also expressing concern on deteriorating health effects of wars and armed conflicts by hindering provision and quality of health service and causing deprivation from fundamental human rights prospective to health, due to the inequalities in access and utilization of qualified health services;

Noting that the Covid-19 pandemic has revealed serious shortcomings in preparedness for, timely and effective prevention and detection of, as well as response to potential health emergencies, including in the capacity and resilience of health systems, indicating the need to better prepare for future health emergencies;

Acknowledging the importance of developing, strengthening and maintaining the capacities to detect, access, notify and report events and the importance of timely notification of events that may constitute a public health emergency of international concern in accordance with relevant provisions of the International Health Regulations (2005), and acknowledging the critical role played by international cooperation and timely and transparent sharing of epidemiological and clinical data, biological samples, knowledge and information, including timely sharing of pathogen genetic sequence data alongside sharing the benefits arising from utilization of such resources, and in this context recalling the Convention on Biological Diversity and its objectives and principle and the Nagoya Protocol on Access to Genetic Resources and the Fair and Equitable Sharing of Benefits Arising from their Utilization to the Convention on Biological Diversity;

Emphasizing the need to promote initiatives aimed at ensuring timely, affordable and equitable access to, as well as the distribution of diagnostics, therapeutics, medicines and vaccines, and essential health products and technologies, and their components, as well as equipment to combat COVID-19 pandemic and to support the achievement of universal health coverage including preventive measures and actions;

Stressing the view that global net-working provides opportunities for Member Parliaments to engage in fruitful dialogue and exchange of best practices on health equity;

Reaffirming the significant role of parliaments both in advocating and promoting national policies and legislative measures for achieving health equity;

Emphasizing that the equitable distribution of anti-Coronavirus vaccines, based on humanitarian and ethical standards, will bring global benefits necessary to save lives, and that keeping the vaccine for a limited number of countries will lead to the prolongation of the pandemic, the continuation of its moral, health and economic repercussions on all the world countries, and will lead to the failure of efforts to eradicate this pandemic;

Having in mind that access to basic health services and medicine is a universally accepted norm arising from fundamental elements of human rights;

Bearing in mind that the Covid-19 pandemic is a global challenge and public health problem, which affects the welfare of the humanity and disproportionately impacts on the most vulnerable people and regions across the globe;

Taking into consideration that the states are facing problems and challenges regarding the protection from, diagnosing and treatment of the Covid-19, and that the health system and hospitals in many countries are under pressure;

Recognizing that the global challenges caused by the Covid-19 pandemic can only be overcome by international solidarity and cooperation, particularly in the fields of anti-Covid-19 vaccine procurement, distribution and inoculation as well as enhancement the worldwide production capacity of the vaccine;

We therefore,

1. Urge the APA Member Parliaments to incorporate Social Determinants of Health (SDH) more intensively in other APA themes and activities;
2. Urge the APA Member Parliaments to strengthen collaboration with a view to formulating a coherent approach with regard to social determinants of health in Asia, especially education, housing, and employment;
3. Invite the APA Member Parliaments to promote health equity in Asia through sharing experiences and best practices on identifying vulnerability and inequity and actively advocate the inclusion of social determinants of health in national policies and programs;

12. Call on APA Member Parliaments to take necessary actions and to encourage their respective governments to ensure child nutrition needs and to tackle malnutrition with a focus on equity for a healthier generation;
13. Determine to accelerate the achievement of SDG 2030 health targets and to take active part on the discussion of 2030 development agenda by delivering Asian views in the international arena to drive the global agenda, as appropriate in the national context and priorities;
14. Calls upon APA Member Parliaments to take action in their countries and persuade governments and other stakeholders for timely and transparent sharing of epidemiological and clinical data, biological samples, knowledge and information, including timely sharing of pathogen genetic sequence data alongside sharing the benefits arising from utilization of such resources, and in this context recalling the Convention on Biological Diversity and its objectives and principle and the Nagoya Protocol on Access to Genetic Resources and the Fair and Equitable Sharing of Benefits Arising from their Utilization to the Convention on Biological Diversity and its objective;
15. Calls upon APA Member Parliaments to persuade their governments to use all relevant measures during the pandemic, including supporting ongoing consideration in WTO on a Covid-19 vaccine Intellectual Property Rights waiver and the use of flexibilities of the TRIPS agreement and the Doha Declaration on TRIPS Agreement and Public Health;
16. Encourage the APA Member Parliaments to actively participate in the process of arriving at common objectives which could form the basis of national legislations promoting health equity in Asia, with due attention to equitable social protection policies for health care, long term disability, and protection during unemployment and old age, as appropriate in the national context and priorities;
17. Support the free and full access of all nations, especially the Asian nations, to all health capabilities and facilities in the event of a pandemic, including Covid-19, as a human right. In this regard, express grave concern over restrictive and punitive measures illegally imposed on our nations at bilateral and multilateral levels, with negative impact on the right of health, right of free and full access to health and medicine in time of current pandemics;

18. Call upon the international community to continue support and assist developing countries in Asia and avoid all politically motivated measures aimed at hampering their access in this regard;
19. Urge the APA Member Parliaments to adopt relevant legislations to support universal access of all population in Asia to basic health services and pharmaceutical products;
20. Demand Israel⁴ - the occupying power - to fulfill its obligations under the Fourth Geneva Convention to provide the Palestinians in the occupied territories since 1967 with anti-Coronavirus vaccines, because the ultimate responsibility for providing them with full health services is the Israeli occupation responsibility until the occupation is completely finished, and asking the Israeli occupation to ensure the freedom of mobilization of patients from Gaza Strip, which has been besieged for 14 years, and evacuate the patients for treatment outside Gaza Strip, while emphasizing the free access of all medical and health supplies;
21. Request APA Member Parliaments to inform the Secretary-General on the progress made on the implementation of this resolution in their respective countries in order to share them with all Member Parliaments;
22. Call on APA Member Parliament to reconsider the health legislation in force to ensure achieving the goal of universal health coverage for all, in addition to increase public allocations for health spending in the countries of the continent to internationally recognized rates, in a manner that enhances equal access to adequate and sustainable health services for all citizens of the continent, especially women, children and the poorest groups;
23. Confirm that the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly have the will to promote solidarity and cooperation in the fight against Covid-19 pandemic;
24. Call for the nations to take further steps especially regarding equitable access to the anti-Covid-19 vaccines and more effective international solidarity on sharing the existing anti-Covid-19 vaccines with the most vulnerable population;
25. Exhort the nations to share the information, experiences and data concerning the Covid-19 pandemic and measures taken as well as the developments on diagnostics, treatments and prevention, including the anti-Covid-19 vaccines;
26. Invite the nations to look into possibilities to participate in vaccine development studies carried out in the Member Countries of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly.

Draft Resolution on Asian Parliamentarians Against Corruption

We, the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,

Recalling APA Resolutions on Combating Corruption contained in APA/Res/2013/09, December 2013; APA/Res/2010/01; APA/Res/2009/03; APA/Res/2008/18; as well as the APA Plan of Action on Combating Corruption contained in APA/Res/2007/05/Annex;

Welcoming the adoption of resolution 8/14 – Promoting good practices in relation to the role of National Parliaments and other Legislative Bodies in preventing and combating corruption in all its forms – by the 8th Conference of States Parties to the UN Convention against Corruption held from 16 – 20 December 2019 in Abu Dhabi, UAE;

Taking note of the importance of the United Nations Convention against Corruption adopted by the General Assembly on October 31, 2003, other anti-corruption conventions and relevant binding legal instruments;

Recognizing that fighting corruption at all levels and in all its forms is a priority and that corruption is a serious barrier to effective resource mobilization and allocation and diverts resources away from activities that are vital for poverty eradication and sustainable development;

Bearing in mind that corruption is a transnational phenomenon and that prevention and eradication of corruption is the responsibility of all States and that they must cooperate with one another;

Reaffirming the importance of respect for human rights, the rule of law, good governance, and democracy in the fight against corruption;

Recognizing the important role of parliaments to promote transparency, participation, accountability and integrity as some of the principles of anti-corruption strategy;

Acknowledging that the fight against all forms of corruption requires comprehensive and multidisciplinary approach including anti-corruption frameworks and strong institutions at all levels;

Expressing concern about the laundering and transfer of stolen assets and proceeds of corruption, and stressing the need to address this concern in accordance with the United Nations Convention against Corruption;

We therefore,

1. Condemn corruption at all levels and in all its forms, including bribery; money laundering; and abuse of power;
2. Express determination to prevent and combat corrupt practices in all forms and collaborate on facilitating asset recovery and returning such assets to their legitimate owners, in particular to countries of origin, in accordance with the United Nations Convention against Corruption;
3. Welcome the significant number of Member States that have already ratified or acceded to the United Nations Convention against Corruption, and in this regard urges all APA Member Parliaments that have not yet done so to consider ratifying or acceding to the United Nations Convention against Corruption as a matter of priority, and urges all States Parties to the Convention to take appropriate measures ensuring its full and effective implementation;

Noting that CEDAW (Convention on the Elimination of All forms of Discrimination against Women) as well as the decisions of the Fourth World Conference on Women Beijing 1995, and its subsequent periodic follow-up conferences, being held every five years from Beijing +1 to Beijing + 5, have all developed a comprehensive framework for the protection and empowerment of women and girls, eliminating all forms of discrimination against them and ensuring that they obtain their legitimate rights for it states parties;

Underlining the need to facilitate networking between women parliamentarians of Asia to meet the challenges in women's issues, including in humanitarian situation, amid the Covid-19 pandemic and in combating the negative impact of unilateral coercive measures;

We express our deep concern about the negative and unfortunate consequences of the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic that have affected women in general, and the breadwinners in particular; and call on states and governments to take this matter into consideration, and they embark on the process of developing pandemic response and recovery policies;

We therefore,

1. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to ensure the full and effective inclusion of women in social, cultural, economic, political, and sustainable development affairs in Asia, at national, regional, and international levels as appropriate;
2. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to adopt legislations to facilitate women's representations in Asian Parliaments;
3. Encourage APA Women Parliamentarians to lead by example and place the interest of women at the heart of policy and decision making as an endeavor to encourage and engage more women into politics;
4. Recommend the importance of information and awareness campaigns to promote the integration of women into political participation and decision – making with a view to facilitate reaching national and international parliamentary institutions;
5. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to recognize the concerns of women, and to effectively implement the relevant provisions of United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development which promote gender equality and empowerment of women with respect for national and cultural particularities of the Member States;
6. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to recognize that gender equality and empowerment of women as a stand-alone goal with clear targets and indicators that must be achieved through implementation of goal 5 of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) with respect to national and cultural particularities of the Member States; with goal 5 of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); with respect for national and cultural particularities of the Member States;

7. Determine to enhance the activities of the Coordinating Meeting of APA Women Parliamentarian through more effective exchange of views and close interaction;
8. Request the Special Committee of APA Women Parliamentarians to expand the scope of its activities under the auspices of Standing Committee on Social and Cultural Affairs and to take appropriate measures to facilitate networking among women parliamentarians in Asia;
9. Request the APA Secretariat to assign one special part of the website of the Assembly to facilitate networking among women parliamentarians of Asia covering updated information on the activities of the APA Women Parliamentarians;
10. Express grave concern at the dire situation of millions of women in all war-torn and conflict-ridden areas such as Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Yemen, Myanmar, and Afghanistan who are inevitably in danger of and impacted by mortality and morbidity of themselves and their family members particularly their children, violence, discrimination, insecurity, poverty, hunger and so forth;
11. Express support of APA Member Parliaments in advancing women, peace and security agenda, particularly by enhancing women's role peacebuilding activities.

Draft Resolution on Effective Cooperation in Combating Illicit Drug Trafficking in Asia

We, the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,

Recalling the report of the Standing Committee meeting on Social and Cultural Affairs held in Tehran, Islamic Republic of Iran, on 13-14 September 2011;

Mindful of the fact that illicit drug trafficking and its negative impact on health, safety, public order, governance, economic development and social health constitutes a prime concern in Asia and deserves a comprehensive consideration by the APA;

Stressing the need to continue to take concentrated measures within the framework of the Paris Pact in order to strengthen cross-border cooperation and information exchanged with a view to countering illicit cultivation of narcotic crops, production and trafficking of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemical substances in Asia;

Emphasizing that the danger of illicit drug trafficking is pervasive so there is an urgent need to mobilize efforts of all countries to curb the production of opium and heroin in the Asian continent and to dismantle networks of illicit drug trafficking from all over Asia;

Acknowledging that the States most affected by the transit of drugs, especially the developing countries among them, have made important contributions to and sacrifices in countering illicit drug trafficking and preventing illicitly trafficked substances from region and markets;

Emphasizing afresh the continuing need to provide concrete, sufficient and sustainable technical and capacity-building support to the States most affected by the transit of drugs, especially the developing countries among them, in their efforts to curb illicit drug trafficking and deal with associated challenges;

Recognizing that production and illicit trafficking of narcotics drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals can be utilized for financing of other organized crimes, including terrorism;

Expressing the need to explore ways and means to intensify regional coordination among legislators to combat drug trafficking and make anti-drug policies a priority in programs of co-operation with, and of assistance to, the Asian countries which are affected by illicit drug trafficking;

Recognizing the interconnected challenges facing Asian countries, including continued illegal cultivation, production and trafficking of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals that pose a serious threat to the region;

Expressing the need to increase international and regional support for the capacity building of law-enforcement agencies in the areas most affected by the illicit cultivation of narcotic crops, production and trafficking of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals in Asia, and to intensify training programs for their law-enforcement staff;

Further recognizing the importance of “Alternative Development” program as an approach to reducing the cultivation of plants containing drug substances through rural development measures that has been strongly endorsed by UN Commission on Narcotic Drug;

Stressing the need to enhance joint co-operation with the relevant law-enforcement agencies of APA Member Parliaments focusing on clandestine heroin-producing laboratories and organized criminal groups involved in the illicit drugs trade, emphasizing the urgent need to increase efforts by the relevant UN Stakeholders aimed at integrated rural development, building infrastructure and supporting farmers engaged in alternative production;

Recognizing the need for more cooperation and intelligence sharing with a result-oriented approach between the law enforcement agencies of the Member States in and including customs and border authorities in order to better tackle smuggling of narcotics and psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals within the region and beyond;

Supporting regional and international efforts to improve law enforcement in combating the production and trafficking of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals and curtailing drug related financial activities;

Emphasizing the need to assist countries most affected by or at risk of the illicit cultivation of narcotic crops in developing its economy and diversifying agriculture so as to reduce people’s dependence on revenues from the illicit cultivation of narcotic crops and trafficking, of narcotic drugs, taking into account the United Nations Guiding Principles on Alternative Development and in line with national legislation;

Reaffirming that Alternative Development is crucial, lawful, viable and sustainable alternative to the illicit cultivation of narcotic crops, that it is an effective measure and one of the key components of policies and programs to counter illicit drug production and other drug-related crime challenges, and stressing that the implementation of the United Nations Guiding Principles on Alternative Development will contribute to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals contained in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development;

Stressing the need to share best practices and take adequate measures in preventing, treatment and rehabilitation of drug addicts;

Expressing the need for more active and efficient international cooperation in combating illicit drug trafficking in Asia;

Attaching great importance to the efforts made by international and regional organizations including the United Nations (UN), office of drugs and crimes (UNODC) and the Asian Parliamentary Assembly (APA) to combat the threats of terrorism, illicit drug trafficking, transnational organized crime and legalization of income derived from criminal activity;

We therefore,

1. Call upon Asian Parliaments to coordinate among themselves to review relevant legislation to address different aspects of combating illicit drug trafficking by harmonizing laws and making minimum punishment stronger;
2. Call upon Asian Parliaments to adopt laws on extradition of convicted persons on terrorism and illicit drug trafficking to their countries of origin for fair trial based on national legislations;
3. Stress the need to exchange information and best practices within APA Member Parliaments on combating illicit drug trafficking;
4. Remain vigilant to the new modus operandi through the digital world and also the availability of the new substances of drug which are not yet listed in the respective national illicit drug lists and call for strong cooperation between APA Member Countries on these issues;
5. Reiterate the need to coordinate and improve law enforcement activities to combat the production and trafficking of narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their precursor chemicals and curtailing the flow of illicit drug more effectively;
6. Encourage the APA Member Parliaments to consider adopting relevant legislation regulations to strengthen international cooperation to support comprehensive and sustainable alternative development programs, as an essential elements of successful crop control strategies, especially in areas affected by or at risk of the illicit cultivation of crops, taking into account the United Nations Guiding Principles on Alternative Development and Member Parliaments with extensive relevant expertise to continue to share best practices, upon request;
7. Underline the importance of effectively using international financial assistance for the creation of alternative economic opportunities in order to ensure a sustainable anti-drug policy;
8. Call upon APA Asian Parliaments to enable civil society as an effective partner of parliaments and to enhance the role of mass media in combating drug trafficking in Asia;

9. Encourage all APA Member Parliaments to support their respective governments in order to coordinate with international and regional organizations including the United Nations (UN) to combat the threats of terrorism, illicit drug trafficking, transnational organized crime and legalization of income derived from criminal activities;
10. Urge that a regular dialogue on supporting joint actions of Asian governments against abovementioned threats within APA could become an effective supplement for addressing the challenges of international illicit drug trafficking and transnational organized crime in the region;
11. Express our commitment to encourage and enhance cooperation with all relevant states and international and regional organizations, on matters of common interest in the spirit of this resolution on rendering assistance to combat illicit drug trafficking;
12. Encourage networking of the relevant national agencies or organizations in Asia dealing with transnational crimes to further enhance information dissemination and intelligence exchange;
13. Request the APA Secretary General to seek the views of all Member Parliaments on ways and means for effective implementation of this resolution.

6. Assist in creating conditions for the safe and voluntary return as well as their unconditional repatriation of refugees and internally displaced persons (IDPs) to their original places of residence in Syria and Iraq, Myanmar and Yemen;
7. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to closely monitor the safe, voluntary and unconditional repatriation of refugees and internally displaced persons in order to ensure the sustainability of the process and the safety of the refugees.

Draft Resolution on Protection and Promotion of the Rights of Migrant Workers in Asia

Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly representing signatory states who are parties to the relevant international conventions and agreements;

Acknowledging that the development of migrant workers and the protection of their rights are in line with the principles of human rights and contribute to the development and promotion of friendly relations among countries;

Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, the Convention on the Rights of the Child and other relevant international instruments to which the States members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly are parties;

Noting that the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of their Families, the International Labor Organization (ILO) Convention 97 concerning Migration for Employment, ILO Convention 143 concerning Migrant Workers (Supplementary Provision), established a broad legal framework for the protection of migrant workers if applicable;

Taking note of the importance of the 2016 New York Declaration on Refugee and Migrants and ASEAN Consensus on the Protection and the Promotion of the Rights of Migrant Workers⁶;

Acknowledging the significance of ILO Conventions concerning the protection of the rights of migrant workers as well as United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and Protocols Thereto 'Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons Especially Women and Children' and 'Protocol against the Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Sea and Air in promoting human rights of Asian migrant workers without prejudice to their sex, race, language, religion, nationality, or ethnic origin;

Noting the adoption of ILO Convention Concerning Decent Work for Domestic Workers at the 100th International Labor Organization (ILO) Conference in Geneva, 2011 as a global recognition of the rights of domestic workers where many of them are migrants;

⁶ Adopted with reservations from Thailand.

Underlining the importance of establishing a national legal framework as well as a broad legal framework for the protection of the rights of migrant workers and noting the legal and illegal status of different cases;

Deeply concerned with the precarious conditions faced by migrant workers such as violating of their human rights including through harassment and violence, discrimination, low pay and low status jobs, unpaid jobs, and overwork;

Underlining the challenges that women migrant workers are facing such as forced confinement, low pay, non-payment, excessive working hours, physically strenuous activities and sexual harassment and abuse, human trafficking and migrant smuggling, and prostitution;

Recognizing that unsettled status of immigrants prevents the establishment of conditions for full scale and comprehensive protection of their right by governments of the countries of destination or transit;

Emphasizing that adaptation of labor immigrants to local conditions and working activity in destination states as well as integration into recipient society are important factors which contribute to effective exercise of the rights of labor immigrants;

Acknowledging the contribution of migrant workers to the society and economy of both receiving and sending states and their input to the development and prosperity of the region;

Bearing in mind the importance of friendly relationships and cooperation among governments, parliaments and the peoples of Asia in solving the problems relating to Asian migrant workers; and in particular, providing repatriation assistance services such as coordination with families, airport assistance, domestic transport, temporary shelter, medical and rehabilitation services;

Recognizing the significant role of parliaments both in strengthening social and human rights policies, and in harmonizing an Asian approach on protecting the rights of migrant workers in Asia;

Confirming that providing adequate measures on the protection and promotion of the rights of migrant workers in Asia is part of a shared responsibility among Asian Countries toward a common vision for security and prosperity, which focused on the improvement of the quality of life of its people;

Concerned with the exodus of people who have tried to flee from their homelands in Asia to some European countries, due to lack or deficiency of security, food, health service, accommodation, employment and so forth; many of whom are young migrant workers;

Noting with great concern that ethnic and other forms of intolerance are the major causes of forced migration;

We therefore,

Draft Resolution on Ageing Society in Asia

We, the Members of the Asian Parliamentary Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2017/12 Resolution on The Role of APA Parliaments in Supporting the Implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals and resolution 2017/17 on Collaboration on Health Equity in Asia;

Recalling UN General Assembly resolution 57/167 of 18 December 2002, in which it endorsed the Political Declaration and the Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing, and subsequent resolutions No. 59/150 of 01 February 2005 on the Follow-up to the Second World Assembly on Ageing;

Welcoming UN General Assembly resolution 70/1 of 25 September 2015, in which the General Assembly adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, and stressing the need to ensure that issues of relevance to older persons are taken into account in its implementation in order to ensure that no one is left behind, including older persons;

Recognizing that the ageing population in many countries in Asia is rapidly growing whereas the fertility rates in those respective countries are significantly declining;

Acknowledging that the older persons in Asia are expected to account for over 17 percent by 2030, due to higher life expectancy;

Being concerned that misconception and prejudice remains a challenge to opportunity for and engagement of older persons in productive employment in some countries, taking into account the unique culture of respect towards older persons in Asia;

Being mindful that public adaptation and preparedness through a life-course, multifaceted approach are keys to help society effectively respond to the burdens as commonly regarded in aged society;

Acknowledging that older persons have made significant contribution to national social and economic gains and, therefore, enactment of effective legislation should be encouraged to remove barriers in realizing full potential of older persons;

We therefore,

1. Calls upon APA Member Parliaments to consider developing and adopting legislations on social protection, health-care services, and employment opportunities for older persons, as well as exploring innovative legislations such as phased-retirement, job sharing and part-time works;

2. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to monitor the implementation of their respective governments' ageing policies and to accord priority to the availability of evidence-based, accurate, reliable and up-to-date data and information in order to ensure effective, efficient and sustainable implementation;
3. Urge APA Member Parliaments to exercise their constituent authority to maximize opportunities for older persons, including through promoting flexible work and alternative employability arrangements, as appropriate;
4. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to work with their relevant constituencies and community-based mechanisms to promote an enabling volunteer environment for older persons, taking into account different social contexts and norms;
5. Encourage APA Member Parliaments to develop legislation and policies to promote an enabling environment to the lives of older persons and to proactively provide services to them and improve the quality of such services, particularly health services;
6. Stress the importance of promoting and supporting international efforts, particularly the efforts exerted by the United Nations, as the UN launched a set of goals that include raising awareness of the health needs of the older persons and their contributions to the communities in which they live, and a better understanding of Covid19 pandemic's impact on them in order to achieve the 2030 sustainable development objectives;
7. Call on member parliaments to encourage their governments to continuously launch programs, initiatives, and events in social development centers in Asian countries in cooperation with the government and national institutions to raise awareness among all segments of society about the needs of the older persons, on the one hand, motivate the older persons and consolidate their role on the other hand. This, in turn, shall actuate all aspects of the active lives of older persons, and ensure their active and continuous participation in their communities.

Draft Resolution on Human Development in Asia
