

Press Release

On 13 October 2019, 08.30 hrs., at Delegation Unit 8, Sava Centre, Belgrade, Republic of Serbia, H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, President of the National Assembly, as the Head of Thai Delegation in the 141st Inter-Parliamentary Union Assembly and related meetings, led the Thai Delegation to exchange views with Mr. Martin Chungong, IPU Secretary General. Mr. Chungong was pleased to welcome the Thai delegation. He and the IPU supported and assisted Thailand in the constitution drafting by visiting Thailand to exchange views and experiences on the constitution drafting, and following-up the political situations and development of Thailand. Furthermore, he congratulated Hon. Mrs. Pikulkeaw Krairiksh, Senator, who was elected to be the IPU Executive Committee Member in the quota of Asia-Pacific Group (APG) and he is ready to work with Thailand in the future. On this occasion, the President of the National Assembly of Thailand expressed gratitude for assistance and confirmed the readiness of the National Assembly of Thailand to propel the legislative organization which represents people all over the world as there are 5 parliamentarians of Thailand who take important positions in the IPU; 1 member of the Executive Committee and 4 members of the IPU Committee. They will work for the benefits and happiness of Thai people and the international community.
